Empathy Map Canvas:

The empathy map for EduGenie represents the needs, behaviours, challenges and expectations of students using a single AI-powered learning assistant.

THINK & FEEL	SEE
• Wants to understand difficult topics clearly. • Wants quick help while studying. • May feel overwhelmed when study activities require different tools. • Wants simple guidance suitable for the learner's level.	• Questions and study topics. • Study material that needs summarization. • Quiz-based practice needs. • Learning-path choices for beginner, intermediate or advanced levels.
HEAR	SAY & DO
• Hears explanations from teachers and learning resources. • Receives information from study material and educational content. • Looks for understandable answers and guidance.	• Asks questions. • Requests topic explanations. • Generates quizzes for practice. • Submits text for summarization. • Requests a guided learning path.
PAIN	GAIN
• Using separate tools for common study activities. • Difficulty understanding some topics. • Time spent preparing practice material. • Need for structured learning guidance.	• One interface for five learning tasks. • AI-generated answers and explanations. • Structured quiz practice. • Summarized study material. • Guided learning recommendations.

Project Focus: EduGenie provides one web-based interface for Ask a Question, Explain a Topic, Generate Quiz, Summarize Text, and Recommend Learning Path.
